This is the problem with Twitter - No accountability. The anonymity of fake accounts breeds a trashy culture of mindless flaming by garbage attitudes. Counter-productive. Bad dynamic for everyone involved. Responsible adults own our actions. Better that way. Own it ‼️

Cryin Chuck Schumer, compared to what other Senators have brought home to their states, has brought very little back to N.Y. A totally overrated loser, the one thing he has given them is SALT. He never even called me to stop it. No wonder Cuomo & most others can't stand him. AOC!

Donald Trump will be the only American president to be significantly responsible for leading America into another depression that will probably be worse than the last one! Well done Donald! You will go down in the history books! But not in a good way! Lessons will be learned!

That sounds about as unsanitary as it gets, guaranteeing you will breath in whatever falls into your mask, plus how do you cut hair with a strap around your ears and the head

Cryin Chuck Schumer, compared to what other Senators have brought home to their states, has brought very little back to N.Y. A totally overrated loser, the one thing he has given them is SALT. He never even called me to stop it. No wonder Cuomo & most others can't stand him. AOC!

Its less than 200 reserves were activated and its directed for Anti-Narcotics operations which were announced about a month ago. The global shutdown has severely crippled drug trafficking and they are desperate. The good guys are wiping them out!

You've seen the movie Gravity? It looks real doesn't it. You realize they aren't actually in "space" right? Same thing with all the NASA Space X bullshit. You saw the car on your screen and you were sold lol. It should take more than that to convince someone with half a brain

So the logic is. it is ok to commit a crime as long as you re running for office because you're above the law By admission this is a double standard It's just as easy to leap to "They're my party, might win. cant indict." Or "Their rich, powerful, etc cannot indict!"

How much longer are we going to pay our Congressional and Senate members for doing nothing?

We have been paying them for four years to do nothing. They've been on a four year vaction! Pelosi cowers at home eating ice cream that some essential worker had to deliver and expects every one to take risks that she is to cowardly to take. There is NO risk! She is the virus!

The flu causes 3-5 million cases of severe illness & 290,000 to 650,000 deaths each year.

In the US, at least 22 million people have gotten the flu in the 2019-2020 season so far & 12,000 have died from it, including at least 78 children. COVID is the ruse to change America.

Unfortunately you won't find 50 million of us, there's not even 10% that have the courage to rise and stand up against the tyranny.

That's why it was between 3-4% that won the Revolutionary War.

They realize conservatives are peaceful and won't harm them so they can make themselves look big and bad.
Yet, when Antifa comes out, they hide behind closed doors shaking with fear and peeing on themselves.

Total waste of valuable time and money that could go toward helping people feed their families and keep a roof over their heads in the states where Governors want to keep their state in lockdown. @SpeakerPelosi You ought to be ashamed of yourself holding onto so much hatred.

Unfortunately you won't find 50 million of us, there's not even 10% that have the courage to rise and stand up against the tyranny.

That's why it was between 3-4% that won the Revolutionary War.

We're in the minority, but 3-4% of 330 million is still quite a few..

They realize conservatives are peaceful and won't harm them so they can make themselves look big and bad.

Yet, when Antifa comes out, they hide behind closed doors shaking with fear and peeing on themselves.

They always claim justice is coming. Been waiting for almost 4 yrs. If anything, the Trump team seems weaker now. I'm at the point where, if they couldn't do it by now (even a small handful of big names arrests) it's never going to happen. They're past their point of no return.

So the logic is, it is ok to commit a crime as long as you're running for office because you're above the law. By admission this is a double standard. It's just as easy to leap to "They're my party, might win, cant indict." Or "Their rich, powerful, etc... cannot indict!"

So I just spoke to Twitter about their suspension of Candace Owens. They say the tweet violates their terms of service because it "tells people to violate the stay at home order in MI". They say they'll reinstate @RealCandaceO today but only if she deletes the tweet. #FreeCandace

Apparently Twitter is now the stay at home thought police and opinion policing enforcement team. Twitter allows pedophiles to discuss their attraction to little kids but @RealCandaceO having an opinion about stay at home orders is where they draw the line. Crazy

106 1.5K 3.4K

Robby Starbuck @robbystarbuck · May 2

Twitter is treating @RealCandaceO's situation differently than tweets we've seen openly defying #CCP... orders, coordinating illegal activity or civil disobedience from civil rights groups. I asked them why. They admit they're treating COVID-19 differently but haven't said why.

15 297 837

Robby Starbuck @robbystarbuck · May 2

These pick and choose standards don't work on what has become the online public square. Twitter staff (which has a major left wing bias) can't be the arbiter of which civil disobedience is okay or allowed. They need to let law enforcement deal with it if it's really a problem.

DE. Biden came into our office (The Treasury)one day with 5 or 6 other people. He introduced himself to me, leaned in, grabbed my shoulder and said "What size bra are those?!". He laughed and so did everyone else.

Can we skip to the part in this pandemic when journalists will claim the virus has returned deadlier than ever—and Democrats will mount a demand for a full mail-in Presidential election so they can attempt to rig it.

We all know where this is going. Let's just get there already Trust me, it's rigged already. The zaniness in Iowa was just a dry run. Ballot harvesting was battle tested in CA. 'Finding' boxes of absentee ballots in parking garages was honed in Florida.

Five million illegals voted in 2016. DOUBLE THAT for 2020.

Trump failed us

He thought he could stop flights from China and then ignore the pandemic for months.

It didn't work. Tens of thousands have died. Now he wants us to forget his lack of response by making up a lie that China created the virus in a lab.

Don't believe his lies.

Interesting? By Congress not wanting the special 5 minute testing apparatus, they are saying that they are not "essential". In any event, we have great testing capacity, and have performed 6.5 million tests, which is more than every country in the world, combined!

They don't want the simple easy testing, they want to set up an elaborate testing that involves interrogation of everyone that you have been in contact with, to do contact testing, which will monitor everyone's movement in their State!

Newsom also shared that officials are working to "build an army of tracers," who will trace newly infected individuals ... and who they came into contact with.

Newsom said the state is in the process of creating an online academy and asking counties about their tracing capacity

True, but Trump can use the powers of the Federal Govt & his Executive Authority to force these states to fully reopen. The nation's economy can't function with 16-18 states refusing to open back up. People are in desperate financial straits & need work now, not in Phases 2 or 3

Interesting? By Congress not wanting the special 5 minute testing apparatus, they are saying that they are not "essential". In any event, we have great testing capacity, and have performed 6.5 million tests, which is more than every country in the world, combined!

The Second Amendment of the United States Constitution reads: "A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed." So what part of that do you not understand? The police wore riot gear!

I'm in Michigan, guns are allowed in our capital and the police are use to it, quite capable of handling it. If they weren't allowed they would have been removed. Mr. Hannity doesn't know what he's talking about.

The guy's making 35 mil a year but look what happened to O'Reilly he adopted a more liberal stance, a lukewarm watered response, and he was gone shortly thereafter Hannity too has to realize, that sooner or later, he'll hit that pinnacle, too too costly to maintain.

They can't. It only happens if the citizens comply. It's why history, constitution, bill of rights etc isn't taught in school anymore. The less you know the more they can control you. Think: not allowing slaves to read, 1930-40's Germany, no guns. Common sense

Why are "reported" deaths in this slide so different than projected deaths? Was this a model originally developed in March or something? It is very strange.

I love my country. I want things to be right. We have a real chance to clean up the corruption that's increasingly done such great harm. But we need a righteous & aggressive DOJ to get it done. The AG serves at the pleasure of the President. Let's all pray we've got the right 1.

The media is an enormous problem, as it serves one side and still has the ability to brainwash a lot of innocent people. And so many of the elites are connected and work together to further their own selfish interests
It does seem like people are waking up though, slowly

I agree with this comment "The AG serves at the pleasure of the President" this just means system is broken. AG should serve no one but only LAW. Until that changes we have lost rule of law in our country. If they make arrest and correct this corrupt system I will believe again

There's a lot of us out here. Getting witnesses and victims to speak out about their experiences with Biden isn't the hard part. Getting the MSM to report it is #InformationWarfare #NothingCanStopWhatsComing #TruthBeTold

DE. Biden came into our office (The Treasury)one day with 5 or 6 other people. He introduced himself to me, leaned in, grabbed my shoulder and said "What size bra are those?!". He laughed and so did everyone else.

The CDC could literally announce in 30 days that the death toll is less than half of what they have been telling us...a real possibility...and a lot of people wouldn't care. This virus is their new religion. They will always worship at the alter of panic & destruction. Psychos

The funny thing is if this were a real pandemic, after 2 months people wouldn't have to be convinced to stay home. It would be evident! That's obviously not the case. I'm just glad to be a Tennessean where I can live my life like normal now

I'll educate folks that don't know how Twitter suspensions work. Your account doesn't go bye bye immediately. You get 12 hours, 24 hours, 7 days, 14 days, and then BAM

The account is still up, they just CANNOT Tweet or Retweet, or Reply, but the account remains active

That's unfortunately not how these work. She can't tweet, reply, or retweet for 7 days. She also had to take the tweet down they reported to initiate the 7 day suspension.

I'd say at least 50% of America has no idea they have been stripped of their rights.

Maybe ask him why the administration is projecting a rising death toll, up to 3,000 a day into June, but telling us that it's time to open things up.

Ask him why per capita testing is still so appallingly low.

Ask him what happened to this "magically disappearing."

Can someone explain to me how you're supposed to get a haircut while wearing a mask or a bandana? You're going to have to eventually take it off?

I know the cosmologists are just following the rules, but you're going to have to remove it anyway at some point? Am I wrong here?

Same way with eating/drinking in a restaurant. This mask issue will be a massive failure as it isn't going to hold up in court. Ohio Gov DeWine had to back off his mask decree in 1 day as apparently his Law Director told him it would lose in court.

Twitter has Suspended my good friend .@TrumpGirlStrong for 7 days for speaking the truth..

I'll educate folks that don't know how Twitter suspensions work. Your account doesn't go bye bye immediately. You get 12 hours, 24 hours, 7 days, 14 days, and then BAM

The account is still up, they just CANNOT Tweet or Retweet, or Reply, but the account remains active

Hi Matt, I followed her just a minute ago. It looks like her accounts back up and running

Matt Couch @RealMattCouch · May 5

That's unfortunately not how these work. She can't tweet, reply, or retweet for 7 days. She also had to take the tweet down they reported to initiate the 7 day suspension.

He attacked the protestors for expressing their 2A rights and said they crossed the line. He just panders to an audience. I haven't watched him in a long time, but I've had several folks reach out to me about his idiocy tonight.

California contributes more money to the federal government than literally any other state.

For example: States like Kentucky to TAKE OUT more than they contribute every single year

Sit down, and research before tweeting such stupidity

Is there anyone more tired of the kids schoolwork, and the busybody-ness of basically keeping people earning a big check for working 1 hour a week... than Americas parents right now..

Both my kids (11 & 15) hate the Distance Learning curriculum. They both say they aren't learning anything just doing busy work. Not to mention the school district restructured the grading scale so they only have turn on their computer to get a passing grade. No work required. BS

The University system should be held responsible for student loan debt. This would stop the maxing out of loan limited for worthless degrees.

This is unacceptable in my book.

Competent Managers and Proper Leadership would've never allowed this to happen.

This food could've served food banks and manner other needy organizations around the United States.

Disgusting watching good food waste away like this.

Is there anyone more tired of the kids schoolwork, and the busybody-ness of basically keeping people earning a big check for working 1 hour a week... than Americas parents right now

This is out of control ridiculous.

I think it's the same thing I've seen from a lot of these people. They push for freedom and protests and rights. But then when people actually do it they get worried that it might lead to a real fight/civil war. They like to push for ratings but then get chicken when it happen

Tyson Foods is the largest Beef and Poultry Producer in the World, and they're a good company. It's a shame to watch liberal shills like MacCallum attack American Companies that do the majority of their business in America.

Abbott is the one setting the executive orders, paving the way for this, and then comes out against it, with no action behind it. He has set the stage for these actions.

You're so uninformed on how Texas Law works I'm curious if you're even a Texan.

You vote in the judges, it's actually in the Texas Constitution that the Judges can do exactly what this judge did.

So vote out this judge. Abbott isn't to blame here. Those are the facts

Question...

We had 60,000,000 H1N1 Cases in 2009 in America.. That caused somewhere between 200K & 400K hospitalizations

The Flu was still happening also.. 140,000 – 810,000 hospitalizations per year on average per CDC..

Why weren't our Hospitals overwhelmed then in 2009?

You're so uninformed on how Texas Law works I'm curious if you're even a Texan.

You vote in the judges, it's actually in the Texas Constitution that the Judges can do exactly what this judge did.

So vote out this judge, Abbott isn't to blame here. Those are the facts..

The Flu was still happening also. 140,000 – 810,000 hospitalizations per year on average per CDC

Why weren't our Hospitals overwhelmed then in 2009?

Tyson Foods was founded in Springdale, Arkansas and is still headquartered here in Northwest Arkansas. They're an American Made & Operated Company

Martha MacCallum has been attacking them in this segment. I only kept it on because they're a pillar of my community, shameful Fox

Tyson Foods is the largest Beef and Poultry Producer in the World, and they're a good company. It's a shame to watch liberal shills like MacCallum attack American Companies that do the majority of their business in America.

The coronavirus pandemic is having a devastating impact on so many people. To try to battle it, we're spending trillions of dollars, making people stay home, and damaging our mental well-being. But what's really irritating is that nobody is talking about the really big issue.

Why are there more deaths in the U.S. than anywhere else in the world? Japan has 126 million people & less than 1,000 deaths from COVID-19. Why does the U.S. have over 70,000 deaths?

COVID-19 is attacking us because as a society we are sick. We have damaged immune systems due to the Standard American Diet (SAD) and because dermatologists won the battle & have made us afraid of the sun. This has resulted in low vitamin D levels, which drains the immune system.

On top of this, what other society's population is 72% overweight and 40% obese? Amen Clinics has published two studies showing that as your weight goes up the size and function of your brain go down. Excess fat on the body produces inflammatory cytokines, which can be a problem with COVID-19. With COVID-19, people develop pneumonia, which sparks an immune response, and this inflammation can cause what's being called a "cytokine storm." If you're already inflamed from too much fat on your body, your chances of surviving that storm are a lot lower.

That's not all. Half of the people in America are diabetic or prediabetic. And 60% have hypertension or prehypertension. These underlying chronic health conditions make you more likely to suffer severe illness or die from COVID-19.

1 15 67

Matt Couch @RealMattCouch May 7

Rather than spending trillions of dollars and scrambling to find a vaccine, we should start putting in the effort to get healthy as a society. That would be a much better use of our resources.

The main difference is Shelley Luther is a true American Patriot and the people at the border were foreign criminals. The leftists will always support the latter group over the first group.

I've vacillated between feeling sorry for JB and being disgusted. After seeing so many of those videos of him pawing little girls, I believe I'm firmly stuck on disgusted.

Well, she's probably right about that, but it's nothing to fear and nothing to close up shop over.

It's the same as saying, "The flu/pneumonia, heart disease, and cancer are going to kill a bunch of people over the next 2 years."

I disagree with Hannity. I realize men carrying long guns looks scary, but it's their right. We have seen cops tackle and beat people up over not wearing a f'ing mask or going for a walk with no one else even around them at all. We have a right to self protection against this totally agree with your Mom. I'm in my early 60's and have lived through worse than this. It seems people in their 30's are the worst for falling for all of this hysteria. No "data" to back it up, just what I see and hear from former students (I teach in college)

In my 30s, I think media has become the worst manipulators of agenda for the far left mass hysteria. That's the only way far left stays in relevance is by creating a panic fear and hysteria. This pandemic will turn out to be a political hoax than anything else.

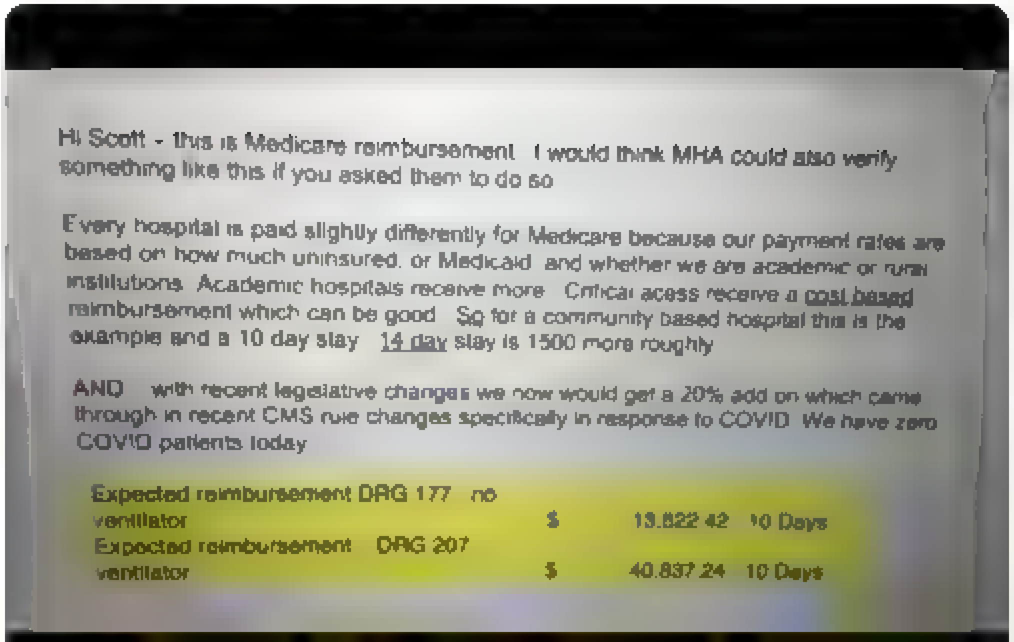
Maybe if they double the incentives and loosen the cdc guidelines even more we can start calling hemorrhoids covid related illness and the hospitals wouldn't have to lay off



Hi Scott - this is Medicare reimbursement I would think MHA could also verify something like this if you asked them to do so

Every hospital is paid slightly differently for Medicare because our payment rates are based on how much uninsured, or Medicaid and whether we are academic or rural institutions. Academic hospitals receive more. Critical acess receive a cost based reimbursement which can be good. So for a community based hospital this is the example and a 10 day stay 14 day stay is 1500 more roughly

AND with recent legislative changes we now would get a 20% add on which came through in recent CMS rule changes specifically in response to COVID. We have zero COVID patients today

Expected reimbursement DRG 177 no ventilator	$	13,622 42	10 Days
Expected reimbursement DRG 207 ventilator	$	40,837 24	10 Days

I am not shocked by Anthony Weener, the things he's done and even manipulated a friend when she was young and vulnerable disgust me. He's a sick man and his wife isn't far behind him

This has to be the worst day in the history of the Democratic Party...

Former New Jersey Governor Chris Christie Aquited by the Supreme Court Unanimously 9-0.... Even RBG said he did nothing wrong..

My favorite is this, which I have memorized because it's that important:

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, SHALL NOT be infringed."

You'd think a guy that almost got killed by a Bernie supporter on a baseball field and had his ribs broken on his lawnmower would know better than to pander to the left. You should know better than to give into the outrage mob.

At Chili's we have to wear mask until food or drink arrive. Meanwhile, right next door is Lowe's. Parking lot is full, people have the freedom to walk about, shop, purchase items etc... mask optional.
This is nothing more than merging society into accepting being controlled

This exchange between Caputo and Duke Nuke'm is priceless!

MR. SWALWELL. Over your career, how much money -- if you could approximate -- have you made from Russian-derived sources, meaning whether your work in Russia or your work over here from Russians, if you could approximate?

MR CAPUTO: Including my time in Russia?

MR SWALWELL Yes Are we talking about more than a million, less than a million?

MR CAPUTO: No God no I am a really good communicator, but I am a lousy businessman I earned about $70 000, $100 000 a year in Russia when I was there I was constantly trying to expand my business. I was constantly hiring people My payroll was larger than my own salary A terrible way to run a business. And then, when I moved back to the United States -- I would like to be precise From 2000 to 2001, while working with Ruder Finn Publ c Relations in Washington, I directed nternational public relations for Renaissance Capital, a global investment bank based in Moscow You will recognize this bank as the one that paid former President B ll Clinton a half a million dollars to speak before a conference in Moscow many years later
